

February 2010

“Cha-Cha broke a toe and was scheduled to be ‘eliminated.’ Thankfully, she came to me instead. Who knew you could spend so much time in the pet aisle looking for just the right chewies?”

– Anne Ellett, Crewe, VA. Cha-Cha (pictured above with Breyana) raced at Orange Park (FL) and Jacksonville (FL) and was adopted through VA Greyhound Adoption.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	1 Groundhog Day	2	3 2003: Dr. Jill Hopfenbeck uncovers greyhound burial ground behind Hinsdale (NH) track.	4	5	6
7 2001: GREY2K USA forms as non-profit to end dog racing nationwide. There are 49 tracks in 15 states.	8	9	10	11	12	13
Valentine's Day 14	President's Day 15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26 2009: Jamaica announces it will not permit dog racing.	27
28	“Coco came off the farm with a black face and a body covered with long fuzzy brown fur, the result of hormones she had been given. She is now a sleek-coated girl who is the leader of our pack.” – Patricia Ross, Crawfordville, FL. Coco (peeking out between the two dogs on the right) was rescued from a farm in Jefferson County, MO and is shown with Rudy (left), Alex Ross, Tigger (middle) and Scooby Doo (right).

