I think I found it... the reason Dorchak (and meow whipped Winky goes along...) hates to enrich the lives of greyhounds and do what they are bred to do ...

DORCHAK'S pet Beagle in college was named... BUNNY.

This is a highly amusing article. I'm not overly spiritual so anything that has the words Born Again kinda makes me giggle. But to actually say she is chronigically 15 yrs old had me in stitches. I've had the life altering and tragic things happen to me twice but to one really regresses in age is delusional. I know, I know.. not very nice of me. But why pretend? they don't like me anyway...
